Terms of Trade for Trade Exhibitions CU2010

Location: CCH - Congress Center Hamburg, Am Dammtor / Marseiller Straße, 20355 Hamburg

1 Registration

With the registration, the exhibitor commits himself to occupying the reserved stand. Even if the stand is not occupied, the exhibitor will have to pay the entire fee. Withdrawal from participation is not possible.

The registration deadline is May 6, 2010.

2 Participation

The exhibition management will decide about the participation of the registering exhibitors. After the exhibition management has confirmed the participation, the contract between the exhibition management and the exhibitor is legally binding.

3 Stand allocation

Stands are allocated by the exhibition management. After the confirmation, the exhibitor will receive a plan of the stand with the corresponding floor plan. Stands will be allocated in the order the registrations are received.

4 Stand design

The exhibitors have to design their stands in a clean and appealing fashion. The decoration material to be used must be flame resistant. Unoccupied stands will be furnished and decorated at the exhibitor's expense. Name and address must be affixed to the stand clearly visible for everybody. After the exhibition, the stands must be left in the same manner they were taken over. Damage to the floor, partitions, trim, etc. will be repaired at the expense of the exhibitor, who is responsible for the damage. Electric installations at the stand must comply with VDE regulations.

If carpeting is needed for the stand, it must be laid loosely.

5 Advertising

The application and distribution of advertisements outside of the exhibition stand is generally not permitted.

6 Stand crew

The exhibitor is responsible for having knowledgeable personnel on the stand for information and supervision during the opening hours.

7 Insurance

There is no general insurance coverage. The exhibitors are responsible for taking out their own insurance for their exhibits and their property for the entire duration of the exhibition.

8 Co-exhibitors

Prior to the exhibition, the exhibition management must be informed of any co-exhibitions by third parties. The management will then decide on granting a permit. A fee will be charged for co-exhibition.

9 Waste / Cleaning

The exhibitors are responsible for keeping their stand clean.

13 Terms of payment

Payment in total is due immediately upon receipt of the invoice. Invoice and confirmation of participation will be sent out to the exhibitor after their registration. Special services will be invoiced separately.

14 Withdrawal / Cancellation

Cancellation or reduction of the floor space by the exhibitor is not possible after the registration confirmation. The participation fee and the actually incurred costs have to be paid in full.

15 Liability

The organizer assumes no liability for personal injuries, material damage and/or pecuniary losses resulting from the participation in the event.

16 Place of jurisdiction

Place of fulfillment and jurisdiction is the location of the organizer's registered office.

17 Catering

Catering on the stand must be arranged with the contractual partner of the GDMB. Other caterers are not permitted.

Withdrawal and non-participation, compensation

1. In general, exhibitors cannot withdraw after the registration has been approved.
2. The entire fee will be due, even if an approved exhibitor does not participate.
3. If the organizers are able to rent out the space to somebody else (no replacement occupation), the exhibitor will be charged 25 % of the participation fee, plus value-added tax, as lost profit and compensation for the administrative costs.
4. Booths, which are not visibly occupied by the beginning of the second day, may be rented out otherwise to ensure proper appearance. The exhibitor will still be charged the full participation fee. If no other exhibitor can be found at such short notice, the booth will be furnished at the exhibitor's expense.
5. If an exhibitor cannot participate due to circumstances neither the exhibitor nor the organizers can be held responsible for (force majeure), the participation fee will be reduced by 50%; paragraph 2 will apply correspondingly.
